

OFFICE OF THE TREASURER
ELKHART COUNTY, INDIANA

TINA M. BONTRAGER

Options for paying property taxes

Elkhart County Treasurer understands normal business and COVID-19 environment have provided challenges for "business as usual". The Treasurer has several options to pay property taxes for 2020. Please note, no payments will be taken in person while the building is closed to the public. Citizens may pay Elkhart County property taxes:

1. By mail to Elkhart County Treasurer, P.O. Box 116, Goshen, IN 46527
2. Online at www.elkhartcountyindiana.com or at www.invoicecloud.com/elkhart
3. Online Bill Direct – Use your parcel number as the account number
4. At a participating bank- Any branch located in Elkhart County of Lake City Bank, First Source, First State or Interra (You must have your tax statement coupon to use this option but you do not have to be an account holder at the bank)
5. NEW – After hours drop box at North end of Elkhart County Administration building at 117 N. Second St, Goshen, IN 46526

Please note:

- Property tax statements were mailed last Thursday (4-9).
- We are encouraging payment by the due date of May 11 unless someone has a hardship. We also accept partial payments in any amount.
- Escrowed parcels have a due date of May 11, 2020 as usual. Any escrowed parcel that is paid after May 11 will receive penalty on May 12.
