Hands Across America

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Levon Johnson
President/CEO
ljohnson@elkhart.org

As I am writing this, I am sitting in the passenger seat of a recreational vehicle headed to Yellowstone National Park.

This trip will take me to some of the great natural wonders of the United States, and the opportunity to see many of our most revered animals in their natural habitat.

It is my first trip back to this part of the country in over 40 years. The first time I went there with my parents, siblings, and a cousin, we traveled in an Elkhart-made conversion van.

While many of the sights I will get to experience won't have changed much in the past four decades, the technology and innovation of recreational vehicles surely has.

The local economic development person in me couldn't help but spend time going through this vehicle marveling at all of the components that make up this RV and are manufactured right here in Elkhart County.

As we started our trip, we passed the sign to the Indiana Toll Road that read "Welcome to Elkhart County. Make It Here" and passed the Elkhart County Convention and Visitors Bureau and was reminded of the tag line "Well Crafted."

Both of those statements speak directly to, and about, the people of Elkhart County and their work.

Of course, we make more than RVs in Elkhart County, but they are a symbol of entrepreneurial spirit, innovative mindset, craftsmanship, and opportunities to work hard.

I've also been watching for other RVs on the road, specifically to see if they were manufactured in Elkhart County.

More often than not, they have been produced in our area.

When thinking about the number of RVs on the road, the number made in Elkhart County, and all of the people who helped put the RVs together, we truly are stretching our hands across America.

Many other items are manufactured in, processed by, or distributed from Elkhart County, making us unique.

Those items include corrugated boxes, aluminum products, plastics, health care items, band instruments, air fresheners, glass, mobility products, bedding, bacon, corn dogs, and so much more.

That list doesn't include intellectual properties.

I wonder how many people in the United States have utilized a product from Elkhart County sometime in their life.

The work we do here in Elkhart County definitely impacts the lives of a large number of people living in the US.

Our efforts provide access to products and services that allow people in this country to live more comfortably and efficiently while experiencing a higher quality of life.

From the farmlands of Iowa to the Grand Tetons, from the St. Joe River to Old Faithful, so many of the people you run into will have been impacted by something from Elkhart County.

And if you ever take this trip, remember to look for the beauty in all of creation.

Business Recognition Awards

Drive & Shine, Inc., 16915 Cleveland Rd, Granger, has received a Business of the Month Award from the Greater Elkhart Chamber Business Recognition Council. Haji and Sherry Tehrani founded Drive & Shine in 1997. Haji Tehrani comes from a family of entrepreneurs and wanted to start his own business. After attending a large Car Wash Show in Florida, he decided that he wanted to open a great car wash in South Bend/Mishawaka. Main Street in Mishawaka was chosen as the first location and had 25 employees. The company has grown to have 19 locations and over 250 employees. Drive & Shine also focuses on innovation and sustainability. They manufacture most of their own equipment and own a custom welding company. The oil they use for their oil changes is recycled and used to heat their buildings, and they recycle the water from the washes to lessen the amount they are using. Foam wraps and gentle cleaning agents are used instead of aggressive chemicals, and all the lettering on their buildings uses LED lights. Drive & Shine is a family owned business and they truly care about those who work for them. The company is committed to the community, and they offer in-house fundraising to nonprofits and schools through 50% car wash coupons.

Philip Matthews Company, 1000 Sako Ct, Elkhart, has received a Business of the Month Award from the Greater Elkhart Chamber Business Recognition Council. Established in 2010 by Rich Eppers and Mike Lee, the Philip Matthews Company has been a pivotal player in the RV industry and supplies essential parts that help create awnings, doors, and windows. Initially focused on vinyl windows, the company swiftly shifted to the extrusion side of the business, responding to market demands. They now boast an impressive 21 production lines, with plans to add 2 more this year. They have had three major expansions to their building to maintain their level of service, and their workforce has grown from 3 to 85 employees. At the heart of their success lies a focus on their employees, including an Employee of the Month program and prioritizing employee protection and well-being. The company fosters a supportive environment where every team member feels valued and empowered. This commitment to their workforce not only enhances morale but also contributes to their overall success and resilience. The Philip Matthews Company actively supports initiatives such as the Boys & Girls Club, charity runs, auctions, and homeless support programs. Their commitment to giving back reflects their values and their recognition of the importance of community engagement.

New Educator Welcome for 2024-25 School Year

The Education/Career Development Council of the Greater Elkhart Chamber will welcome new teachers and administrators of Elkhart, Concord, and Baugo School systems and area private schools with a welcome presentation at their school system's orientation in August.

Sponsors are needed for our canvas bags and items to fill them. The completed welcome bags will be delivered to each new educator at their school.

Each bag will contain information about Elkhart County, a listing of contributing businesses, and donated items such as pens, pencils, office supplies, coupons or products with company names and logos.

Two hundred items are needed to fill the bags and meet the goal to reach all new educators in the community. Donations should be received at the Chamber by July 26. Bag sponsorship ($400) deadline is June 14.

For information, contact Kathy at (574) 293-1531 Ext. 122 or kcardwell@elkhart.org.

Elkhart Leadership Academy Accepting Applications

The Elkhart Leadership Academy is gearing up for its 37th Cohort! The Academy's nine-month program is designed for high potential employees to further develop their leadership, team building and communication skills and is exclusive for Chamber Members' employees only.

Participants will engage with various organizations at locations around the county to expose them to the uniqueness this community has to offer. Session content is geared toward building hard and soft leadership and communication skills while getting the participants in front of key leaders to learn from their insights. They will also gain an understanding of their workplace behaviors through Everything DiSC Catalyst assessments and how to work effectively with other behavioral styles. Content is rounded out with diversity and inclusion, problem solving, conflict management, decision-making, media communications, and presentation skills.

Academy members will participate in a group impact project over the duration of the program with local nonprofit organizations. This critical team building experience exposes them to the inner workings of nonprofits and philanthropy throughout the county and has deliverable results. They will also be asked to serve a one-year board internship with a local nonprofit organization or service club after graduation, if they are not currently serving on a board or service club.

Cohorts are limited to 30 attendees and the deadline to apply is July 18. The application can be found online at: www.elkhart.org/elkhart-leadership-academy-application/
